

I am very happy with Indiana telephone privacy law as it is written. I feel strongly that changes should not be made to accomidate the wishes of the CBA. They are obviously looking to re-open this as a marketing channel.